

Mediacom Communications Promotes Joseph Commisso to Group Vice President of Corporate Finance

October 13, 2014

MEDIACOM PARK, N.Y.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Mediacom Communications Corporation announced today that Joseph Commisso has been promoted to Group Vice President, Corporate Finance. In his new role, Commisso will be actively involved in all aspects of the Corporate Finance Department's activities, including debt financing, banking relationships, investor relations, external financial reporting, corporate strategy, business development, portfolio investment and liability management. He will report directly to Mark Stephan, Mediacom's Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer.

Commisso joined Mediacom in 2006 on a full-time basis and most recently served as Vice President, Financial Operations and Corporate Strategy, where he developed and managed the enterprise data warehouse and business intelligence systems. Since the Company's founding in 1995, he has played an integral part in Mediacom's growth and has held various internships in financial operations, field management, programming, acquisition due diligence and information technology.

In addition to earning his Bachelor of Science degree in Civil Engineering from Columbia University, Commisso completed the Cable Executive Management program sponsored by the CTAM Educational Foundation at Harvard Business School. He serves on the board of directors of both the Hudson Valley Economic Development Corporation and the alumni advisory group, Friends of Columbia Soccer.
